You need to include the correct answer in the question pool to be able to study for an exam to obtain a FCC license {Marine Radio Operator Permit (MROP)}. Only the questions with the multiple choice answers are present. How do I know which answer is correct??? If the answers are available, how may I obtain them through the FCC or must I go to a proprietary third party to buy the answers??